Handwritten musical score on a page with a large number '2' at the top left. The score consists of two systems of staves. The first system has two staves: the upper staff contains a melodic line with notes, rests, and dynamic markings like 'f' and 'p'; the lower staff contains a bass line with notes and rests. The second system also has two staves: the upper staff contains a melodic line with notes and rests; the lower staff contains a bass line with notes and rests. There are several 'x' marks above the staves, possibly indicating specific notes or corrections. The notation includes various note values, rests, and dynamic markings.

Five empty musical staves, each consisting of five horizontal lines, arranged vertically on the right side of the page.

SOCIETAD ESPAÑOLA

The image shows a page from a ledger or account book. It features 11 vertical columns of blue lines, each containing several horizontal lines. The columns are arranged in a regular pattern across the page. The paper is aged and has a yellowish tint. At the top right, the number '2' is printed. At the top left, the text 'SOCIETAD ESPAÑOLA' is visible, though partially cut off. The page is otherwise blank, with no handwritten or printed text within the columns.
